The Christmas Story

And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed. (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.) And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:;) To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child. And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. (Continued on pg 2)

Issue no. 2

And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn. And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us. And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

New Email Address

Yourname@yourinspirationsource.org? What is going on with that? Well over the past few weeks You may have noticed a few changes to the site, and one feature we have briefly mentioned is going to be explained in full. There are over 226 million email addresses throughout the world, and those numbers are for the big names out there, countless people have email addresses. Your Online Inspiration Source is proud to announce the launch of their new email system. From the wonderful people at roundcube, we have been able to set up a stable and reliable email system. Now you may be wondering why would I want to get an email address. Well the answer is simple. As we are working on our new features having an email address with us will make the use of our site better. For inter user contact and outsider contact. One thing that sets our email system apart is you can use this email address for other purposes, unlike other sites that only allow you to use their email system for inter user contact. We allow you to use it for various purposes. With loads of space along with our spam filter getting better each and every day, There's no reason for you to stay with your old email system. ## Let Your Light Shine

By Ellen Bailey

Does the light of your soul still shine?
Is it still a beacon that others can find?
Or does a guilty conscience cover it like a film
Dulling its rays and causing it to look dim?

Do you tell yourself everything is just fine
Ignoring the needs of others as if blind?
What about those who have gone astray?
And those who are lonely and afraid?

Search your heart and see what you find Ask yourself if you have been unkind
Good deeds alone will not get you into Heaven
Extend a helping hand to your fallen brethren

It will clear your conscience and erase your sins
And the light of your soul will be bright again
Others will look upon you as a beacon of hope
As down life's road they struggle and cope

Iplead with you to let your light shine forth, as a standard among the nations, especially in this time.
It's Christmas time, and we must not be oblivious to the needs of those around us. They could be your best friend, they could be your neighbor, family member, co-worker, or the checker at the grocery store. The spirit of Christ is what we need to have in our hearts, not the spirit of me, more, or mine. Times are hard for all of us, but let us give what we can to others, to lift the burdens of the poor, to stretch ourselves, to bear one another's burdens. May God be with you, and may you keep the spirit of Christ with you throughout not only this Christmas Season, but throughout the entire 2010 year.
